

PROGRAM

8:30 Welcome with coffee

9:00 Intro by Hilde De Smedt (Belgium)

9:15 Towards a Diversification of Strategies in Family Language Transmission - Isabelle Barth (Luxembourg)

9:35 Well-Being and Intergenerational Language Attrition and Loss Within Families with a Minority Language - Annick De Houwer (Germany)

9:55 Languages in balance ("Talen in Balans") – parental program for parents in multilingual families - Anna de Graaf (Netherlands)

10:10 L2 in migration contexts: analysis and perspectives in a multicultural framework - Massimiliano Schirinzi (Italy)

10:30 Break with poster sessions:

1. Maria Obojska (Norway) - Multilingualism among Poles in Norway: Trilingual repertoires, multifaceted experiences
2. Bianca Mohr (Germany) - The role of parental socio-emotional well-being in raising an English-German bilingual child: Gaining insight into harmonious bilingual development
3. Katharina Ereky-Stevens (UK) - Development of and ICT-based intervention for families - support for parents in linguistically diverse contexts during (or in preparation for) their children's transition to preschool or school
4. Beata Kowalczyk (Italy) - Sociopolitical aspects of bilingualism in mixed Italian-Polish families and their support.
5. TALES at home.

11:15 Presentation by Marinella Orioni (France)

11:40 "Die gutest Mama in die world" – Families working together in heritage language learning - Sabine Little (UK)

12:05 The Mother Tongues project in Ireland - Francesca La Margia (Ireland)

12:30 The relevance of multilingualism in the family Arif Hossain (Italy)

12:45 Closure / short reflections

13:00: Lunch